

H'Olympic activities

— Photos by Cindy Shegan Keeley/Daily News

McKeesport and Pittsburgh are hosting the 2006 H'Olympics, a national event for abused, neglected and troubled children.

More than 300 kids from across the nation are visiting Auberle and Carnegie Mellon University for a series of games this week.

Above, the Newark, N.J., team watches the action during their softball game in Renziehausen Park.

At right, all participants were treated to ice cream to cool off on the hot day.

